Support, Advisors and Managers

We provide attentive account management for our clients and genuinely invested personal guidance for our candidates. We see the real value in creating strong personal connections – both in the office and in life in general. We are committed to fully understanding our clients and candidates, making sure every interaction is packed with value and a human perspective.

RECRUITMENT CAMPAIGNS.

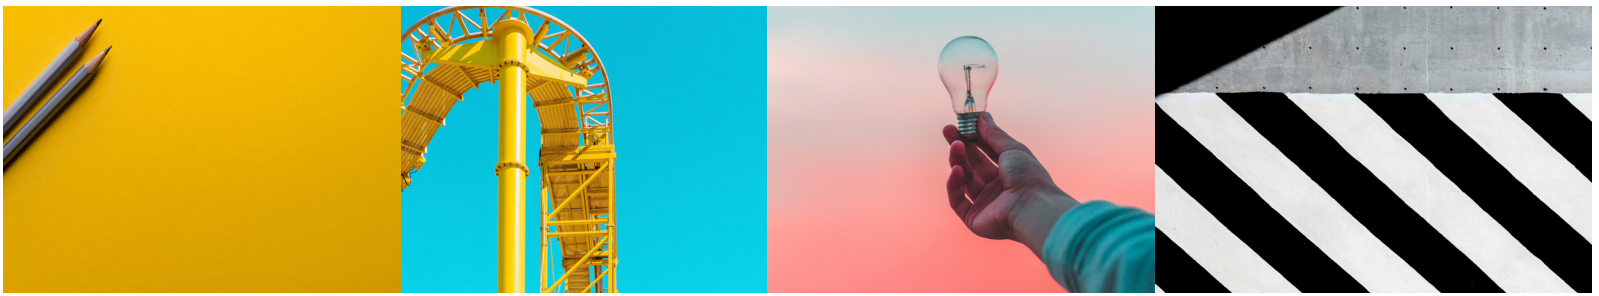

Our tailored recruitment campaigns are there to meet the needs of individual businesses.

After taking a full and detailed brief on the requirements of the role, we work closely with our clients to deliver the best possible solution through searching our active candidate database, utilising our incredible networks, digital and social media and internet job boards to ensure we find the perfect candidate with our expert matching skill sets around experience and cultural fit.

We provide end-to-end recruitment solutions in a consultative style, ensuring a positive experience for everyone involved.

TEMPORARY SERVICES

The Recruitment Studio's Temporary candidates have been tested and screened to ensure their personality and skill set aligns with your brief. It could be a four-hour assignment through to one week, a month or ongoing – needed that day or pre-booked for future cover – we offer a fast and efficient service. Feel free to call and discuss your requirements and how we can help.

WHO WE ARE

We are Bridgette and Jo, co-founders of the Recruitment Studio, recruiters with a long-standing passion for people. We offer a combined 30 years of experience recruiting in the Auckland market. When we set up the Recruitment Studio, we wanted to step out and do things our way – with a personal and honest approach that sets us apart. It was clear when we first started working together, we shared values of integrity and transparency.

We truly love what we do, and launching the Recruitment Studio has been a long-held dream for us both. We spend time with our clients, listening and getting to know their business. We have a strong focus on our candidates who always walk away feeling like they've gained something from spending their precious time with us.

We're excited to bring you stress-free, positive recruiting.

We are your kind of people.
